“Nothing is more the child of art than a garden”

Sir Walter Scott

Come and help us develop our site at Westhorn Allotments into a fun and usable garden as part of CCA's education and outreach programme.

Each day includes a workshop from an artist or gardener on a particular topic, and a variety of activities to get involved in, from planting and harvesting food and flowers, digging and weeding, to building flower beds and pathways*.

Tea and refreshments provided

Gloves and tools provided

Bring your own boots!

Westhorn Allotments (G31 4QA) are located in Parkhead, off of London Road next to the Celtic Supporter's Club, accessible via the Clyde Cycleway or by bus.

Email education@cca-glasgow.com for more information

A group will leave CCA at 11.15am to take the bus - please join us!

CCA's education and outreach programme supports the wider Glasgow growing network and local communities.

* Please note: there is Japanese Giant Hogweed on site. If you plan on digging, strong boots are required - protective suits can be provided.
