JONAS STAAL THE SCOTTISH-EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT

Until Sun 25 November (Closed: Thu 15 - Sun 18 November)

Mon-Wed, 11am-6pm; Thu-Fri, 11am-8pm; Sat, 11am-6pm; Sun, 12noon-6pm // Free

Jonas Staal's The Scottish-European Parliament is centred around a visual model that transforms a decommissioned oil rig in the North Sea into a new transnational parliament, assembling pan-European organisations with Scottish civil platforms, social movements and political parties to envision a future European Union from a Scottish point of view. Is there a future for an independent Scotland that rejoins the European Union? And could the visionary campaigns of the social movements that arose during the independence referendum revitalise a weakening European Union, internally threatened from both austerity policies and ultranationalism?

This exhibition is the culmination of a two-year collaboration between Staal, CCA's Public Engagement Curator Viviana Checchia, Glasgow School of Art Professor Johnny Rodger and Glasgow University PhD Candidate Anika Marschall, which included a series of public events and research meetings with Scottish organisations concerned with the question of independence and Scotland's relationship with the EU. Artistically, The Scottish-European Parliament is an imaginative, almost utopian, space that proposes the existence of a new European parliament.

Accompanying this exhibition, CCA presents earlier works of Staal's New Unions campaign. From alternative maps and flags of a future European Union to drawings and studies of alternative European parliaments, these works illustrate earlier examples of Staal's unique artistic research at the intersection of art and politics.

A WEAKNESS FOR RAISINS FILMS & ARCHIVE OF ESTER KRUMBACHOVÁ

Sat 8 December 2018 – Sun 27 January 2019 (Closed Mon 24 Dec – Mon 6 Jan inclusive)

Tue-Sat: 11am-6pm // Sun: 12noon-6pm // Preview: Friday 7 Dec, 7pm-9pm // Free

Ester Krumbachová was a key figure in Czech New Wave cinema in the 1960s. She contributed significantly to films such as The Party and the Guests, Daisies, Valerie and Her Week of Wonders, Witchhammer, and The Murder of Mr Devil, as a costume designer, stage designer, scriptwriter, author and director. After the 1968 Prague Spring and the subsequent invasion of Warsaw Pact forces, Krumbachová was one of many Czech artists effectively silenced and non-officially banned from Barrandov Film Studios until 1989.

Krumbachová has returned to public consciousness recently as her papers, artwork, photography and clothes were donated to create an archive, which is overseen by curators Edith Jeřábková and Zuzana Blochová. The archive is beginning to shed light on Krumbachová's time, with many topics – agency, magic, materialism, gender, feminism, the interconnected nature of reality, and sensory forms of knowledge – remaining relevant today.

This exhibition is based on the only film directed by Krumbachová, The Murder of Mr. Devil. Displaying key elements of her archive within a much broader context, artists Sally Hackett, France-Lise McGurn, ACID PRAWN (Sian Dorrer) and Marek Meduna interact directly with her work, with Dorrer and Meduna also collaborating on display.

December Double Screenings, CCA Cinema:

Daisies / The Ear*, Tues 11 Dec, 6pm & 6.50pm, Free but ticketed / 15+

Marian / Valerie and Her Week of Wonders*, Tue 18 Dec, 6pm & 7.20pm, Free but ticketed / 15+

Curated by Are Prague and CCA Glasgow with guest curators Panel and ACID PRAWN (Sian Dorrer).

About CCA: CCA is Glasgow's hub for the arts. Our year-round programme includes exhibitions, film, music, literature, spoken word, festivals, Gaelic and performance. We have an open-source approach to programming and work with a growing number of partners and individuals to whom we offer space to programme their own events. At the heart of all our activities is the desire to work with artists, generate new projects and present them to the widest possible audience. CCA also produces a range of artist residencies, both in the venue and internationally.

CCA ticketing: Please note that tickets sold through CCA's box office incur a booking fee of £1. This is not-for-profit; the booking fee covers the costs of our ticketing software. Booking fees do not apply to free-but-ticketed events.

Access: All of CCA's public spaces are accessible.
